ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This dissertation is an attempt at telling the story of a patriotic freedom fighter from Rayalaseema in Andhra Pradesh. This work would not have been prepared without the generous inspiration, encouragement and good wishes of many.

It gives me joy and pride to record my deep sense of gratitude to Prof. M. Abel, Vice-Chancellor, Sri Krishnadevaraya University, Anantapur for his blessings and abiding interest in me since my student's days.

I am deeply grateful to Prof. B.R. Gopal, Head of the Department of History for infusing enthusiasm and encouragement in me, despite his numerous preoccupations.

To the members of the Faculty of History, SK University, I extend my warm thanks for their valuable help and advice.

My thanks are due in a large measure to Dr. M.X. Miranda, my guide for his expert guidance throughout and for his labour of love in being with me till the work is completed.

No words of gratitude can be adequate for the minute and meticulous direction in methodology given by Dr. C.J. Nirmal, Professor and Head of the Department of History, Madras Christian College, Madras who had the patience to spend his precious hours over this work.

I must express my gratitude to Sri G.N. Suryanarayana, Retd. District Congress Secretary, Sri D. Suryanarayana, Retd. Block Development Officer, Sri K.V. Vema Reddy, Sri I. Sadasivam and a lot of friends, classmates and fellow-researchers who have rendered immense assistance and inspiration to me.

I owe special thanks to Sri V. Sahadevan, who typed this dissertation with remarkable professional skill and on record time.

N. MALLIKARJUNA.