

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Quite often words are felt highly insufficient to bring out the real feeling and the sense of indebtedness to:

Dr. (Mrs.) K.S.Kumari, my Research Guide, Professor and Head (Rtd.), Dept. of HomeScience, St. Teresa's College, Ernakulam, for her learned counsel, meticulous and gracious guidance, love and affection, constructive criticism, forbearance, valuable, precious and timely suggestions all through the research work which contributed the most to the completion of the study and the critical scrutiny of the manuscript.

Sr. Christabelle, the Principal, St. Teresa's College, Ernakulam for rendering necessary help and facilities for conducting the research work smoothly.

Hon. Vice-Chancellor Dr. (Mrs.) Jancy James, Mahatma Gandhi University, Kerala, for her benign and dignified approach and help rendered in the completion of the thesis. Mahatma Gandhi University for the Junior Research Fellowship (JRF) extended to me.

Mr. AjithKumar.C.E, Senior Programmer, Department of Statistics, Kerala Agricultural University, Thiruvananthapuram and Mr. Oommen.P.Mathew, Research Investigator, Population Research Center, Thiruvananthapuram for their statistical analysis and interpretations.

Mrs. P.Leela, Librarian (Rtd.) for her affection, mental support and encouragement and also Mr. Sanjeev.P, Librarian, KAU, for issuing me the necessary materials for reference and all my good old teachers in the Dept. of Homescience, Kerala Agricultural University, Thiruvananthapuram for their love and encouragement.

Mrs. Mary Agnes, UD clerk, St. Teresa's College, Ernakulam, who with motherly affection always kept me agile.

Mr. P.Sivanandan, Secretary, Adivasi Bhoo Samrakshana Vedi, Kasargod, without, whose assistance and support this work would have been rather difficult.

Mr. K.K.Surendran, Lecturer, DIET, Wayanad, Mr. P.Gangadharan (Wayanad) and Mr. M.K.Sukumaran (Palakkad), Social Activists whose influences and acceptance among tribal people helped me a lot to conduct the survey in the tribal areas. I remember gratefully how helpful was the presence of Smt. Usha (Mrs. Surendran) on my visit to tribal area in Wayanad, especially when most of the interviewees remained sulky to many of my questions pertaining to study.

Dr. (Mrs.) Gouri, Medical Officer, Pulpally, Wayanad for her help during the clinical investigations among children.

Mrs. L.Krishnakumari, Senior Nurse in Puthur PHC who has won the President's award for the best health worker in the state, for helping me a great deal to conduct my survey among the tribal and nontribal people of the area.

Mr. Sureshan. T, School teacher, Kayyoor and Mr. Manoj Kumar.P.V., Software Engineer, Kasaragod for rendering whole hearted help and support.

Anganwadi teachers in the districts in establishing rapport with the respondents. Indeed the present study would not have been possible but for the ready help and cooperation of the numerous respondents in the tribal and nontribal communities around whose perceptions this thesis have built.

Mr. Santhosh James, CIEFL, Hyderabad and Dr. Sheetal Anand, his colleague who helped a lot during my visit to National Institute of Nutrition (NIN), Hyderabad, for reference work.

Acknowledgement

Mr. Venkit Ramanan, Senior Research Officer, NIN, Hyderabad in locating the materials inevitable for my study.

Mr. Vinod Krishnan, Senior Research Officer, Centre of excellence, Indian Institute of Management, Kozhikode for providing me with references and other related materials necessary for the study.

Renowned writer, Mr. Srivaram Balakrishnan, PRO, Raj Bhavan, Kerala, for his precious suggestions and help for doing the final proof reading of the thesis.

Mrs. Sindhu, for the DTP work of the thesis. Mrs. Vanaja for the neat job works. Mr. Santhosh for the Graphics work.

My parents, Smt. A.Omana and Sri. R. Hari (Managing Director, Hindustany Cylinder Co. Ltd., Thiruvananthapuram), who were the source of inspiration for me in the moments I felt failing like. Indeed, their moral support, propitious help and encouragement extended at all stages of the endeavour have helped me a lot for the successful completion of the thesis.

My brothers Mr. Riju Hari, graphics designer, KMT press, Bhutan and Mr. Praveen Krishnan (Eng.), Deputy General Manager, Hindustany Cylinder Co. Ltd., Thiruvananthapuram for their love, encouragement and also for the neat and beautiful layout and graphics.

My sister Smt. Reeja Hari, Advocate, High court and her husband Mr. Raj Mohan, Journalist, BBN TV, Kerala for their moral support and encouragement throughout the course of the study. I affectionately recall the sweet memories of the moments with their little daughter, Devika, who was also a source of inspiration for me during the course of my study.

My in-laws especially my mother in-law, Smt. Meenakshi Amma and father-in-law, Sri. Unnikrishnan Nambiar for their support and encouragement.

My husband Mr. Madhusoodanan Chengatt, KSHDC, Kannur, for his ungrudging support rendered throughout my life especially during the conduct of my study and preparation of the thesis. Without his help and cooperation I couldn't even imagine taking this endeavour.

With no little pain can I recollect the unspeakable sufferings and loneliness, which my daughter, Mrinalini, underwent during the busy schedule of my research and study tour.

After all I pay tribute to The Almighty without Whose love and blessings nothing in this world is possible.

Riji Hari
