CONTENTS

Acknowledgements:

Preface: i - iv

Chapter I: The Social Background of the Nineteen Thirties 1 - 27

Chapter II: The Poet's Purpose in a Time of Flux 28 - 55

Chapter III: W.H. Auden: An Acute Analyst of a Disordered Decade 56 - 96

Chapter IV: Cecil Day Lewis: Enthusiast for an Egalitarian Social Order 97 - 124

Chapter V: Stephen Spender: Critical Epitomizing of Experience 125 - 158

Chapter VI: Poets on the Fringe: MacNeice and Others 159 - 191

Chapter VII: The Idiom of the Political Poetry of the Thirties 192 - 229

Chapter VIII: Disillusionment with Political Ideology 230 - 245

Chapter IX: Conclusion 246 - 250

Bibliography: 251 - 271