ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I express my deep sense of gratitude to my guiding Professor Dr.(Mrs.) Lakshahira Das, Retd. Professor and Head of the Department of Education, Gauhati University who has shown keen interest and has offered valuable suggestions and encouragement in carrying out this research work. His encouragement and assistance at every stage of my work could enable me to complete this study in the present shape.

I also express my deepest gratefulness to Mr. Suha Sharmah, Addl. Director of Adult Education, Assam for immense help in supplying important materials and informations from official records. Besides he was kind enough to help by offering his personal books and records.

I should also take the opportunity to express my sense of gratitude to the Project Officers, Supervisors of Adult Education of the districts of Barpeta, Nalbari and Kamrup for their sincere co-operation as extended for the collection of data during field work. Special mention is to be made of Mr. Sarat Ch. Gogoi, the Project Officer, Kamrup District who took keen interest in the collection of data from the learners and instructors by being personally present in the field. The help rendered by him is unreturnable.
Last but not the least I take the opportunity to express gratefulness to Shri A.C. Pegu, the Director, Adult Education Department, Assam who took pains to issue necessary instruction to his subordinate staff for offering every help in conducting the field work.
