ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I express my deep sentiments and regards to my respected guide (Supervisor) Dr. (Mrs.) Sabitry Choudhury Bordoloi. This piece of investigation owe its compilation to her pains taking effort and constant encouragement. I shall remain indebted to her for the affection and generosity bestowed on me.

I owe a personal feeling of gratitude to Prof. Amlesh Dutta, Head, Deptt. of Zoology, Gauhati University for his able guidance and continuous encouragement.

I take this opportunity to thank the faculty member of Deptt. of Zoology for their valuation suggestion from time to time.

I would like to proffer my profound reverence to Shri Ashok, Captain of Pune; Maharashtra for helping me in the field of ophiology in the state for which I could complete this project. I will always remain grateful to him.

I owe personal feelings of gratitude to Dr. K. Haridasan (Rtd. Scientist of SFRJ), now as Joint Director FRLHT, Bangalore for his constant encouragement in undertaking this study. He guided my field tours in most of the snake habitats by helping in vegetation analysis.

My heart overflows with the deep-seated sense of gratitude for Dr. A. Borang, Scientist SE, SFRJ, for constant encouragement and valuable suggestions while carrying out the studies and preparing of the manuscripts.
I am grateful to the Deptt. of Environment and Forest, Govt. of Arunachal Pradesh, for according permission for perusing Ph.D. research Degree, Programme from Gauhati University. At the same time I am earnestly thankful to all the officers and officials of the Deptt. specially Sri M. L. Deori, IFS, (Ex. Director), SFRJ, the present Director Dr. S. N. Hedge and Dr. N. S. Bist, IFS, Shri V. K. Jawal, APFS, Shri T. Pertin, APFS, (All DFOs) Silviculture Division, SFRJ, Itanagar, Dr. S. P. Singh, Ecologist, SFRJ, Dr. A. N. Rao, Asstt. Orchidologist, Tipi, Dr. G. Murtem, Soil Scientist, Shri J. Basar, ACF, Mr. M. M. Borah, Sri L. R. Bhuyan, Sri U. V. Singh, Shri R. K. Taj, Shri O. Apan, Shri A. Sharma, Sri J. Muttu, Ms. R. Sadang.

I humbly express my loyal and heartiest thanks to Dr. Anwaruddin Choudhury, Dr. A. K. Baishya, Dr. R. C. Sundriyal, Shri P. T. Bhutia, Dr. M. S. Khan, Dr. Arunachalam all from Itanagar for helping me in one of many ways. My special thanks to Madam Mathews at ZSI, Shillong for Museum Study.

I would be failing in my duties if I fail to acknowledge my gratitude to all the Librarians and Libraries on whom I drew immensely for successful completion of this project, some of them – Ms. Debasiri Dam, Sri Jotem Borang, Sri Maltesh, Sri Rakesh of ZSI, A.P.S.C.L., A.V. and W.I.I. Dehradun.

I would like to express my appreciation to my subordinate staff Shri K. Kamen, Shri I. Dai, Ms. Monica Taying, Shri S. Tameng, Sri Lakpa at my office for helping me in laboratory analysis.
I am sincerely indebted to the numerous Village Head Men (Gaon Burahs), Well known Hunters, Village School Teachers and many friends in some of the remotest parts of Siang, Changland, Tirap, Subansiri, Lohit and Debang valley Districts for all their help in many ways.

I am also indebted to the BRF personnel who rendered me timely help as logistic, food, Shelter, and in other ways, thereby making my surveys more successful, at the same time and armed forces specially Assam Rifles has given me much help in covering some of the bordering areas of high altitudes, I am equally indebted to them.

I find no words to express my innate gratitude and reverence to my beloved family members, my parents, to my wife Mrs. Riju Rekha Bhatt, for her wholehearted support and taking full burden of my family during preparation of the thesis and to my daughter Miss Abhisweta and son Dhruv for their eager wait during my long field visits.

Finally the word of appreciation goes to Mr. Baruah and Sujit Chakraborty for metamorphosizing this manuscript, with deep interest and well in time.

Needless to say errors and omissions are mine.

Place: Itanagar
Date: 24/12/04

(B. B. Bhatt)
State Forest Research Institute,
Itanagar.