CONTENTS

Preface .................................................. i-vi
List of tables .......................................... x-xiii

Chapter I: INTRODUCTION ............................. 1-36
Importance of Agriculture - Indian Scene - National Policy on Agriculture - Agriculture and the Five Year Plans - The New Strategy - Limitations to the Application of New Strategy - The Problems.

Chapter II: FINANCE AND AGRICULTURE ............ 37-55
Need for Finance - Types of Credit needed - Special Features of Agricultural Finance - Disbursement of loans and Supervision of Credit.

Chapter III: A PROFILE OF THE CACHAR DISTRICT ....... 56-105
Historical Background - British Rule in Cachar -
Present Set up of the district - Locations - Mountains - Rivers - Natural Resources - Demographic features - (Size of population - Density - Sex Ratio
- Decadal growth Rate - Caste and Religion - Working Force - ) Transport - Industry - Soil - Land and land use Pattern - Land Holding Pattern - Climate - Fertiliser - Irrigation - Flood - Agriculture
Cropping Pattern - H&V Programme - Productivity -
Input Delivery System.

Chapter IV: SOURCES OF INSTITUTIONAL FINANCE TO AGRICULTURE: A NATIONAL OVERVIEW ............ 106-172
National Institutional Framework - The Cooperatives (Structure - Primary Co-operative Credit Society - Sources of fund and lending procedures -
Chapter V: FINANCIAL ORGANISATIONS AT WORK IN UNDIVIDED CACHAR DISTRICT

Introduction - Co-operatives - Emergence of Gaon Panchayat Samabay Samitis (GPSS) - GPSS and Commercial Banks - GPSS and Undivided Cachar district - Land Development Banks.

Commercial Banks - Growth of Commercial Banking in the district - Branch Profile - Branch Network and Credit-Deposit Ratio.

Cachar Gramin Bank - Deposits and Advances - Sector-wise growth of Advances.
Farm financing in the district - Credit supply -
Low credit absorption - Small and Marginal Farmers
- Overdues - Credit Requirements - Credit Supply - Estimation of Credit gap - Impact of Credit Supply on the basis of field study.

Chapter VI: SUMMARY OF CONCLUSIONS AND PROBLEMS AND SUGGESTIONS

BIBLIOGRAPHY

APPENDIX