ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The Thesis entitled "Developing and testing the effectiveness of the Programmed Learning Material in the syllabus of Principles of Education in B.T. Course of the Gauhati University" embodies the results of the research work done by me for the fulfilment towards the requirements for the Ph.D. degree in Education in the Department of Education, Gauhati University. I did this work under the scholastic guidance of Dr. Henu Devi, Professor and Head of the Department of Education, Gauhati University during the period from May 1983 to January 1988. I acknowledge my heart-felt gratitude to her for her overall guidance and constant help with meritorious suggestions and discussions she offered me throughout the preparation of this thesis.

I extend my thanks also to other teaching staff of the Department of Education of Gauhati University who showed interest in my work.

I express my sincere gratitude to Dr. Mukul Sharma, Professor and Head, Department of Education, Dibrugarh University, to Professor Hareswar Goswami, Principal, Nagaon Teacher Training College, Nagaon, to Prof. Kanak Bordoloi, Principal, Mangaldoi B.T. College, Mangaldoi, to Prof. Abu Hassain Mallah, Principal, Banikanta B.T. College, Gauhati for allowing me permission with all their sincere helps and co-operation to me in conducting the various try-outs, and practical experiments in their institutions, without which this work would not have been possible.

I express my thank to Prof. Zahid Choudhury, Principal, K.K.B. Girls' College, for his continuous encouragement. I also place on record my sincere gratitude to all different institutions and libraries including Central Institute of Education, Delhi; Delhi University, Gauhati University for their valuable offers and helps to conduct the research.

I must thank Mr Girindra Nath Deka, for his meritorious technical help to bring the thesis to light.
