ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

At the very outset, I must express deep sense of gratitude to Dr. Anil Kumar Sharma, former professor of Business Administration, former Dean Faculty of Commerce, Guwahati University under whose masterly guidance and supervision this study has been carried out. He has been a source of inspiration and encouragement throughout my work and without his corporation and help, this study would not have been possible. I owe this debt for life.

I solemnly acknowledge the generous attitude of the Authorities of Guwahati University for granting me the opportunity to take up the present research study.

I am grateful to management of the Namrup Unit of Hindusthan Fertiliser Corporation for granting me the permission to collect data and use their informations. I would like to express my thankfulness to the management of the Corporate Office of HFL, New Delhi for providing the valuable reports and informations for completion of the work.

I gratefully acknowledge the help received from Fertiliser Association of India, Sar Sarmic Sangha, Sar Sarmic Maha Sangha,
Deptt. of Public Enterprises, Govt. of Assam and such other Organizations, Associations and Agencies in collecting relevant literature.

I gratefully acknowledge the generous attitude of JB College authority for granting me the necessary permission to undertake the study.

I am indebted to colleagues in the Department of Commerce JB College; for their encouragement and support extended for the completion of the project. I gratefully acknowledge the help and guidance received from Dr. D Bhattacharyya for completion of the project.

I must acknowledge the service of my wife Runumee. She had all the time be constant source of motivation for completing the work.

My student Ashish deserved mention for rendering various help as and when sought for.

I am thankful to Mr. Ajay Beriya, proprietor of Ajay Tele Service, for taking the pain of typing the thesis within a short period of time.

Needless assert that all matter of analysis, interpretations, judgements, errors and omissions are entirely my responsibility.

(Ashok Borthakur)