ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It is my great pleasure to acknowledge with deep sense of gratitude, my thanks and greatfulness to my guide Dr. Swarnalata Das, reader, Department of Education, Gauhati University for her guidance, valuable suggestions and encouragement at all stages in conducting the investigation. Submission of this thesis could be possible for her painstaking help during the period.

I also express my sincere gratitude to Dr. Nandita Sarma, Head of the Department of Education and all other teachers of Education Department for their constant encouragement.

My thanks goes to Dr. B.K. Nath, Deputy Director of Adult and Non Formal Education, Govt. of Assam for his valuable suggestions.

I should never forget to thank to the Officials of Jorhat Zilla Saksharata Samity, Deputy Director of Economics and Statistics, Jorhat for their assistance and Co-operation in collecting necessary data for the present investigation. The investigator will also remain greatful to the learners and Volunteers of total Literacy Campaign and those local people who assisted and Co-operated in collecting reliable data for the investigation.

Lastly, I must be obliged to my mother and Father Late. U.N. Goswami who always encouraged me to do such a research work.

Dated Guwahati the 5th August 1997

Dulumoni Goswami