Response.

1. (a) The Election Commission Notification for the proposed delimitation of Assembly Constituencies have never been properly published to the public to enable their active participation in the proceedings.

(b) Political Parties involvement and participation in the delimitation of Constituencies was sufficient.

(c) Public participation and involvement and not just the Political Parties themselves should be called for.

2. Foul play and Political manipulations certainly infiltrated the delimitation of Constituencies during all the three occasions i.e. 1972, 1976 and 1986.

3. The existing Demarcation of Assembly Constituencies as last carried out in 1986 needs to be re-demarcated
