CONTENTS
INTRODUCTION
Geographical background : Historical background. 1

CHAPTER I
THE NEW SYSTEM: IN THE BEGINNING, (1826-1854) 9

CHAPTER II
REFORMS AND READJUSTMENT, (1854-1882) 35
The Despatch of 1854 - indigenous schools encouraged - defects in the system: Despatch of 1859, - its recommendation on primary education- causes of slow progress: Campbell's Resolution of 1872 - Assamese as medium of instructions - impetus to primary schools : Education of women : Multiplication of secondary schools - demand for higher education - Robinson's suggestion for collegiate education - failure of the experiment : Expansion of English education.

CHAPTER III
REORIENTATION AND DEVELOPMENT, (1882-1919) ..

CHAPTER IV
CURRICULUM AND MEDIUM OF INSTRUCTION ... 87
Curriculum and medium of instruction in indigenous schools - village schools - mission schools: Demand for Assamese medium; arguments for and against - Murray's suggestions - Campbell made Assamese the medium of instruction - reorganisation of courses - practical trends: Curriculum and medium in the hills: Standard of primary education raised: Curriculum and medium in secondary schools: Wood's Despatch - curriculum of Middle Schools - syllabus for the Entrance Examination: Education Commission of 1882 and bifurcation of courses - vocational course, causes of slow progress: Adoption of uniform curriculum - reversion to the Middle Vernacular Schools: Role of English in instruction.

CHAPTER V
TRAINING OF THE TEACHERS ... 121
Need for training schools: Early experiments, achievements and failures: George Campbell's Resolution - expansion of training centres: Apprenticeship courses: Recommendation of the Education Commission, 1882 - remodelling of apprenticeship training - its defects - remedial measures: Training school for Middle Vernacular teachers - reorganisation of the existing system: Private enterprise - Missionary institutions - training centres for females: Slow progress, causes analysed.

CHAPTER VI

MANAGEMENT AND CONTROL

Beginnings of educational administration - the Local and village committees: Appointment of an Inspector of schools for Assam - need for more inspecting staff: Towards centralisation: Director of Public Instruction - subordinate officials and their duties: Decentralisation of educational administration - its implementation in Assam - formation of the District, Local and Municipal Boards - educational services - separate Directorate for Assam - changes in controlling body - growth and functions of School Managing Committee - College Governing Body - internal management of schools: Supervision of Missionary institutions: Text Book Committee: Control over examination and scholarships: Board of Moderators - observations.
Educational finance in pre-British days, in the early days of the Company: Despatch of 1854, grant-in-aid introduced - Decentralisation of finance, 1870 - financial responsibilities transferred to Provincial Government: Sources of educational revenue - Public funds - Provincial grants - Local rates - Municipal funds - Imperial assignments: Private funds: Miscellaneous income: Expenditure - direct and indirect - grant-in-aid - capitation grant-examination and scholarships - administration - building, furniture and equipment.

CHAPTER VIII
EDUCATION OF THE BACKWARD COMMUNITIES

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Chapter</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Achievements and Failures</td>
<td>231</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Appendices</td>
<td>245</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Glossary</td>
<td>252</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Select Bibliography</td>
<td>255</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>