ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

At the outset, I acknowledge my indebtedness to my Guide Dr. (Mrs.) Kunja Medhi, retired Professor, Department of Political Science, Gauhati University, under whose supervision I have completed this work. I take this opportunity to record my sincere gratitude to her for the interest she took in my research. Her untiring and constant encouragement and able and scholarly guidance was indispensable and was a great source of inspiration to me without which it would not have been possible to complete this work within a stipulated time. Her firm vigil on the progress of my work, really encouraged me a lot in finishing the work.

I take the proud privilege of recording my sincere gratitude to Prof. Monirul Hussain of Gauhati University for his kind deliberations in certain issues and counsel. I must express my sincere gratitude to Prof. Niru Hazarika, Prof. Debabrata Sarma, Prof. Phanidhar Gogoi, Dr. Sandhiya Goswami, Dr. Alaka Sarma, Dr. Nani Gopal Mahanta, Dr. Akhil Ranjan Dutta, Dr. Dhurba Pratim Sarma of the Deptt. of Political Science, Gauhati University for their valuable inspiration.
I also owe a deep sense of gratitude to Sri Girindra Nath Sarma, Principal i/c of Tihu college for his constant encouragement and cooperation. I feel obliged to record my sincere and thankful appreciation of the inspiration I received from some of my friends and colleagues such as Dr. Kishor Talukdar, Late Dr. Amarendra Kalita, Dr. Gunin Choudhury, Kamala Deka, Ramani Barman, Badan Barman, Jagadish Pathak, Prakash Medhi, Ramanuj Kalita, Pranjal Das and many other of our Tihu college. I would like to express my thanks to my friends Bibek Roy of Bijn college and many others for their valuable encouragement. My thanks are also to my elders such as Dwijen Deka of Rangia college, Parag Das of Bajali college for their inspiration. I must extend my acknowledgement with a deep sense of gratitude to Dr. Amalendu Guha, Dr. Sanjeeb Baruah who extended much help and cooperation in my work.

I am greatly indebted to my beloved father, mother, my elder sisters and brother Sri Pankaj Kalita, Father-in-law and mother-in-law for their unfettered inspiration for my higher studies. I am also greatly indebted to my wife Chandamita Kalita who shared all pleasures and pains of my research with me and shouldered the responsibilities to the maximum in maintaining the family during the busy days in my research. I am also indebted to my daughter Gayatri and son for their undeniable help.

My sincere thanks are due to the staff of the Assam Legislative Assembly Libraries, Dispur for their immense help and cooperation in providing materials relevant to my research. I am also thankful to the staff of the K.K. Handique Library of Gauhati University, the staff of Assam State Library, Assam Administrative Staff College Library and to the staff of Tihu College Library for providing necessary facilities to continue my studies. I am also specifically and abundantly indebted to few respondents, i.e. the Legislators of the Eight Assam Legislative Assembly for certain clarification. I am also indebted to the office of the Assam Secretariat, Dispur, Director of Economics and Statistics, Director of census operation, Guwahati, office of Prominent Political parties. Besides my thanks are also due to all other official persons and individuals who cooperated me actively in the research. I must extend my thanks to Sanjeeb Sarma, Tapan Kumar Bharali, Rabin Sarma, Ashim Pathak, of Tihu locality who kindly typed the thesis within a sort time even in the face of their other urgent pre-occupations.
Last, but not the list, my thanks are certainly due to all who directly or indirectly connected with the preparation of the thesis.
