ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Behind any accomplishment lies the effort of many people. This work is no different. I thank my supervisor, Priyam Goswami, Professor and Head of the Department of History, Gauhati University, for giving me the opportunity and her patience and support in accomplishing this work.

My special thanks go to Indian Council of Historical Research, New Delhi, for providing me with the monetary grant to carry out my research work. I would like to thank all the librarians and staff of KKI Library, Gauhati University; ICHR Library, Guwahati; Department of Historical and Antiquarian Studies; Departmental Library of Folklore, G.U.; Assam State Archives; Omeo Kumar Das Institute for Social Change and Development; Tribal Research Institute; Assam Administrative Staff College Library; Assam Legislative Assembly Library; Political Department of Government of Assam; Assam Accord Implementation and Language Implementation Departments of Assam Government; Hagzer Bhavan, Office of the Bodo Sahitya Sabha; ABSU Office and BTAD Office, Kokrajhar who helped me immensely in course of the collection of material. At the same time, I owe special gratitude to all the teachers and staff of Department of History, G.U. for being encouraging and supportive.

I thank former Principal of Cotton College, Udayaditya Bharali, for believing in my dreams. I would also like to thank Arupjyoti Saikia, Department of Humanities, IITG, for his guidance and support. I am equally grateful to Uttam Bathari, Assistant Director, ICHRNERC; Dhruva Pratim Sarma, Department of Political Science, G.U.; Anil
Kumar Boro, Department of Folklore Research, G.U.; Dharmeswar Sonowal, Director, Assam State Archives; Shashank Sonowal, Manash Barman, Mrinal Baishya and to my family who stood by my side all the time during my work.

Regardless of the amount of help received, I sincerely thank all those who have helped me in various ways in accomplishing this work.

Despite my best efforts and care, I may have fallen into errors. However, I owe all responsibilities for that.
