CONTENTS

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS i
ABBREVIATIONS vii
MAP ix

CHAPTER I

Introduction
i. Identity, Society and Politics 1
ii. Conflicts and controversies around identities: Indian context 6
iii. The Assam scenario-the Bodo Movement 11

CHAPTER II

The Background
i. Comprehensive history of the Bodos 27
ii. New regime, new complexities 38
iii. Socio-economic grievances of the Bodos 41
iv. Christian Missionaries' contribution to the construction of Bodo ethnic identity 52
v. Socio-religious and literary movements of the 20th century and its implications in formation and assertion of a distinct Bodo identity 55
vi. Simon Commission and political assertion of the Bodos 58
vii. Politics of Tribal League and the Bodo experience 60 viii. Merger of Tribal League into Political Mainstream of Assam 62 xi. The advent of democracy and spread of the idea of self-determination 63
x. Modernization, urbanization, globalization in essentialization of Bodo identity 64
xi. Nation-building endeavours: Assamese political mainstream 65
xii. Language policy 66 xiii. Impact-Assam movement and its aftermath on Bodo psyche 67
xiv. Ethno-consolidating role of Bodo Sahitya Sabha 70
xv. Assertion of Bodo identity under ABSU 73

CHAPTER III
Role of Interpretation of History to Accommodate Bodo Identity and Politics 77
i. Interpretation of history to legitimate Bodo territorial demand 79
ii. Interpretation of history to construct boundaries between Bodo and Assamese 88
iii. New traditions invented 92
iv. History of Assamese nationality formation and Bodo politics of identity 94
v. Portrayal of Assamese as colonizers with reinterpretation of past facts 97

CHAPTER IV
Nature of the Bodo Movement 101
i. First phase: 1929-1947 109
iv. Fourth Phase: 1993 to 2003

CHAPTER V

Impact of the Bodo Movement

i. The Assamese community and identity formation process
ii. Assamese identity and its assertion during British period
iii. Post-independence new projection of Assamese identity and assertion of Bodo identity
iv. Bodo contestation of Assamese community formation and identity by way of history and culture

CHAPTER VI

Conclusion

APPENDIXES

Appendix B: Agreed Ground rules for suspension of operations between the security Forces and the Bodo Liberation Tigers Appendix C: Ministry of Home Affairs, Government of India's dialogue with Bodo Liberation Tiger on 30.03.2001
Appendix D: Union Government notification proscribing the Bodo terrorist outfit in Assam, the National Democratic Front of Bodoland on November23, 2002.

Appendix F: Copy of the amendment Act of the Sixth Schedule to the Constitution of India in pursuance of the memorandum of settlement signed on 10 February, 2003.

BIBLIOGRAPHY