ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It is my pleasant duty to express my sincere and profound gratitude to my guide Dr. Renu Debi, M.A.,LL.B., Ph.D., A.I.E.(London) Reader of the Department of Education, Gauhati University, whose inspiration and unfailing guidance made it possible for me to bring out the thesis into a concrete reality.

I owe a lot to our respected Sir Professor B.C.Kar who is a perennial source of encouragement to my work. I express my deep gratitude to him.

Without the help and co-operation of a large number of individuals it is impossible to bring out a work of this type. The investigator is grateful to the Heads, teachers and children of the schools who extended their help in collecting the data and particularly in administering the check lists.

The investigator is also thankful to the Librarian and his staff of the Gauhati University library wherefrom she used the books, journals, encyclopaedia for reference.

She also offers her thanks to the Director of the Department of the Historical and Antiquarian Studies and the Director of the National Library at Calcutta that helped her in completing the thesis.

I thank all my well-wishers who encouraged me in this piece of work.

Gauhati University.
