Acknowledgement

Work that requires a lot of time and patience also requires help and support from others in one form or the other. The research work carried out by me would not have been possible without the assistance of those people around me. At the same time, individual acknowledgement will cover along list. The research work that I have done owes a great deal to the supervision and guidance given to me by my research Guide, Dr. Nagen Chandra Das, former Head and Dean, Faculty of Commerce, Gauhati University. I express my sincere gratitude and am thankful to him for providing enough time and support to prepare this thesis. I also profusely acknowledge a sense of gratitude to Dr. Nayan Barua, Professor, Department of Commerce, Gauhati University for his timely advise and all the teaching faculties of Commerce, Gauhati University. I am also very much thankful to Dr. Prabin Baishya, Ex Principal, SBMS College, Sualkuchi, whose guidance has helped me immensely to carry out the survey for my research work at Sualkuchi in a disciplined manner.

I would also like to express my sincere gratitude to all the staff of Directorate of Handloom and Textiles, especially Mr. A.R. Chowdhury (Publicity Officer), Mr. Dinesh Sharma (Production manager) of Artfed, Directorate of Sericulture and Indian Institute of Handloom Technology. My sincere thanks to Pulu Silk House and Assam Co-operative Silk House for giving me necessary information and accessibility to know and understand weavers and the nitty-gritty of weaving profession.

I am deeply appreciative of my husband Mridul Dutta whose encouragement, suggestions and criticism have made me reach this juncture. I am very much thankful to my baby (Ritisha Mridul), parents and siblings for creating a supportive atmosphere needed to carry out my research work. My thanks to M/s B. B. Infotech for printing and binding this thesis.

I sincerely thank all those persons who have blessed me to fulfill my objective of submitting my thesis for the degree of Ph.D under Gauhati University.
