ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

At the very outset I must acknowledge that the study was done under the supervision and sincere guidance of Dr. Prabin Chandra Das, Former-Secretary, University Classes and Guest Faculty, Department of Folklore Research, G.U. I am greatly indebted to him for his encouragement and constant guidance in my field work.

I express my gratitude to Dr. Kishor Bhattacharya, Head of the Department of Folklore Research, G.U. and thanks to friend Dr. Anil Kumar Boro, Lecturer, Dept. of Folklore Research G.U., Dr. Painuruddin Ahmed, Lecturer, Cotton College for their valuable suggestions.

I would like to express my indebtedness and heartfelt gratitude to a host of well-wishers, friends and a large number of informants who have extended their helping hands in collecting materials and in completion of my work. I record my thanks to Shahjahan Ali and Saidur Rahman of Doloitola and Ajgar Ali of Fakirtola and Nazimuddin Ahmed of Adhiaapara for helping me specially in the collection of songs and tales.

I specially thank those who took much pain in singing songs and telling stories and tales and who co-operated with me in the performance of their items of verbal folklore.

— iv —
Besides, I would like to express my sincere gratitude to the various authors, authorities, publishers, organizations and institutions for using their learned papers, books, journals, reports and other materials in connection with my research work.

I also take the opportunity to thank Sri Hemanta Deka, Lecturer, South Salmara College for sincerely typing the works and Mr. Matiur Rahman, of Barkhetri college for drawing the maps.

I am particularly grateful to Mrs. Farida Begum, my wife who bore the troubles and inconveniences of the family during my work and who was constant source of faith and confidence whenever my patience and strength of mind to be running out.

Guwahati, Assam
December, 2008

Ali Akbar Hussain
Head, Department of English
Suren Das College
Hajo

(Ali Akbar Hussain)