ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The investigator records her sincerest gratefulness to Professor B. C. Kar of the University of Gauhati, for kindly giving her guidance and encouragement to undertake the present investigation.

The investigator is immensely indebted to all her informants who very kindly extended their cooperation without which it would not have been possible to collect data for the study.

The investigator is greatly thankful to her colleagues in the Institute who had been offering her help and inspiration all throughout the period of investigation. She also expresses her sincere appreciation to the educationists and others for the advice and inspiration she received in conducting the study.
