ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The present research work is undertaken under the guidance of Dr. (Mrs.) Lakshahira Das, Professor of Education, Gauhati University, who has showed keen interest and has given her fruitful suggestions, guidance and encouragement in completing the present thesis. My sincere gratefulness remains to her for ever, as unless and without her untiring guidance and valuable advices it would not have been possible for me to make this endeavour a success. In the midst of her various pre-occupations, she has very kindly devoted much of her precious time, in helping me throughout the work.

I should also take the oppotunity to express my sense of gratitude to Sri Iftakh Hussain, for his immense help in supplying important materials and informations from official records. Again I should be thankful to Sri Kulendra Nath Das, Assistant Inspector of Schools, Dhubri and other Office staff for their timely help and co-operation in completing my work.

I also express my deep debt of gratitude to Sri A. H. Choudhury, Officer-in-charge, Record Branch, Assam Secretariat, Dispur and his Office staff; Md. Mohsin Ali, Deputy Director, Secondary Education, Assam; Sri Jadav Baishya, Statistics Department, Office of the Director of Public Instruction, Elementary Education, Assam, for their help and co-operation.

My sincere thanks remains to the Librarian of the Dept. of Historical and Antiquarian Studies in Assam, Guwahati; the Librarian and his staff of the Gauhati University Library; Council of Baptist Churches in North East India, Panbazar, Guwahati and also to the Librarian of Directorates of Economics and Statistics, Guwahati.

I am also thankful to all those whose books or writings were consulted in the preparation of this thesis.

During the period of field work, I had a unique pleasure of meeting many persons in the visited primary schools. Innumerable persons, whose names it has not been possible to mention individually here, helped me either directly or indirectly for collection of materials at various critical stages of my work. I am indebted and grateful to all of them.

Last but not the least, I am grateful to my parents, uncle and elder brother, from whom I have received constant encouragement and all kinds of assistance to complete the present work.
