ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

At the outset, the investigator expresses his profound gratitude to his mentor, Prof. B.C. Kar, Professor and Head of the Department of Education and B.T., Guwahati University, without whose guidance and supervision, this work would not have materialised.

A piece of work of this type cannot be accomplished without the cooperation of a large number of individuals, institutions and agencies. The investigator is grateful to several education officers, heads of schools, teachers, professors and teacher educators who extended their help in the collection of data, in the construction of checklists and in the administration of tests.

Moreover, the investigator is highly thankful to Principal S.C. Majumdar, Post Graduate Training College, Shillong, who very kindly allowed the investigator to use the College library, College duplicator and type writer.

The investigator is also grateful to the chief librarian, State Central Library, Shillong, who graciously lent some very precious books.
The investigator expresses his thanks to Louis Vernal, Mr. M.K. Bhattacharya and Mr. B. Sikdar, who typed the thesis with so much care.

The investigator expresses his gratitude to all the publishers and authors whose books he used for references in the thesis.

Shillong, 12. 1. '75

Kityananda Dasgupta