ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

In the present study, I have attempted to study the internal efficiency and cost-effectiveness of primary school system which has now reached to be completed. However, my work will be incomplete if I do not acknowledge the help extended by my well wishers during my years of research.

I really find no words to express my deep sense of heartfelt gratitude and indebtedness to my esteemed guide and supervisor Prof. Nilima Bhagabati, Department of Education, Gauhati University for her valuable suggestions and gracious co-operation extended throughout the course of the study. Her constant academic, meticulous and close supervision during the entire study period will always be remembered.

I am also impelled to express my gratefulness and sincere thanks to Prof. M.P. Bezbaruah, Department of Economics, Gauhati University for his expert guidance and valuable suggestions throughout the tenure of present investigation. Without his able supervision, the work might not have been given the present shape.

I extend my gratitude to Prof. Lutfun Rasul Saikia, HOD, Department of Education, Gauhati University for her gracious cooperation and assistance for the accomplishment of the investigation.

I also extend my sincere thanks to Prof. S. Das, Department of Education, Gauhati University for her help and valuable suggestions.

I express my sincere gratitude to Dr. Gayatree Goswamee, Reader, Department of Education for constant support and guidance extended to me during the entire course of the study.

I would be failing in my duly if I do not extend my thanks to Dr. J. Swargiary, Reader and Dr. Polee Saikia, Lecturer of Department of Education, Gauhati University for their sincere help and cooperation.
I am thankful to all the faculty members of Education Departments, Gauhati University for their supportive comments, valuable suggestions and cooperation to carry out my works.

I express my special thanks to Dr. Mizo Prova Borah, Lecturer, SCERT, Assam for her generous help and suggestions throughout the study. Open hearted thanks also due to my well wisher and fellow friends for their cooperation and enabling encouragement. For most among them are Lakshmi Kanta Das, Lecturer, SCERT, Assam, Guwahati, Siddhartha Sarma, Lecturer, SIE, Jorhat and Chinmoy Sarma and Alakesh Dutta, Lecturer, DIET, Marigaon.

I am also immensely grateful to the Headmasters and teachers of the sampled schools who have spared time out of their busy schedule for providing information required for my investigation. I am also thankful to the staff of various libraries, information centres in the State as well as national level which I have visited for review of related literature and for collecting required secondary information.

I am indebted to my loving wife, Ruchira Baruah for her constant inspiration, encouragement and cooperation at every step of my research work. My lovely daughter Rosy and son Jonak are constant source of inspiration and deserve special mention in this sphere.

I am also indebted to my mother, brother and sisters whose everlasting love and aspiration made my endeavour a success.

Last, but not the least, I would like to express my heartful thanks to Mridul Sarma, Technician, SCERT, Assam for his patient, skilful and meticulous word processing of the manuscript and presenting my thesis in the present form.
