ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I deem it a great pleasure to express my sincere and deepest sense of gratitude, immense indebtedness and heartfelt regard to both of my research guides - Dr. C.M. Sarma, Ph.D., Professor of Botany, Gauhati University and Dr. M.N. Dev Choudhury, Ph.D., Former Biochemist, Tocklai Experimental Station, Tea Research Association, Jorhat, for their guidance and supervision.

This work of mine would inevitably have come to grief without the kind advice of Dr. D.N. Barua, Retired Senior Botanist and Plant Physiologist, Tocklai Experimental Station, Tea Research Association, Jorhat and Professor K.K.G. Menon, Ex Director-Technical, The Assam Company Ltd., Calcutta. To them I owe my thanks for giving the benefit of their expertise.

I am thankful to Dr. T.S. Barman, Plant Physiologist, Tocklai Experimental Station, Tea Research Association, Jorhat, for his help in radiotracer analysis.

I must take this opportunity to implore my sense of heartfelt thanks to all the staff of Department of Biotechnology, Assam Agricultural University, Jorhat and particularly to Prof. (Dr) P.C. Deka, Dr. A. Borthakur for kind help and suggestions offered by them for the work.

My thanks are due to all the employee of the Biochemistry Department, Tocklai Experimental Station, Tea Research Association, Jorhat, more particularly to Mr. Farid Ahmed, Mr. Pradip Saikia, Mr. Dimbeswar Bora and Mr. Saruram Bora for their assistance during the course of investigation.

My special word of thanks for my husband Mr. M.R. Goswami, Analytical Chemist, Tocklai Experimental Station, Tea Research Association, Jorhat for his help and inspiration for the entire period of investigation as well as preparation of the thesis, without which it would not have been possible for me to bring it into its present form.

I am very much thankful to Mr. M.N. Gogoi, Research Engineer, Tocklai Experimental Station, Tea Research Association, Jorhat for taking all the troubles to go through the draft of the manuscript of this thesis inspite of his busy schedule.

I express my indebtedness and regard to my mother and father-in-law for their encouragement and blessings in completing the dissertation work within the entitled period.

I am grateful to the Director, Tocklai Experimental Station, Tea Research Association, Jorhat, for providing me the research fellowship and all other facilities during the course of this investigation.

In thanking all those people, I must emphasise, that I am fully responsible for any shortcomings that remain.

Cinnamara, Jorhat,  (Nizara Bhattacharyya Goswami)
