ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

At the very beginning, I would like to pay my tribute to late Dr. Anita Baruah Sharma under whose guideship I started this work. I will always remember her for initiating me into my research.

I am greatly indebted to Prof. Nandana Dutta, my supervisor, who gave my project a new shape as I was just at the initial stage of my work during the time of Anita Baruah's demise. It would have been difficult for me to proceed, had it not been for her invariable support. She had constantly inspired me with new ideas and lent me books whenever I needed them. She had always taken the trouble of reading my work as it progressed and had offered me valuable suggestions. I owe her a deep sense of gratitude.

As I had been a teacher fellow in the department of English, Gauhati University, I had the privilege of coming in contact with the faculty members of the department. I would like to express my gratitude to each one of them for having encouraged me all through. The interesting discussions with my fellow research scholars, Krisha and Payal, made many things clearer to me. I remain thankful to them for their co-operation.

I acknowledge the UGC for having granted me a teacher's fellowship as I could do a lot of extensive reading in different libraries to prepare myself for the work. I am grateful to the librarian and staff of the KK Handique Library of Gauhati University, ICHR, North-East Regional Centre, Guwahati, the National Library, Kolkata, the Nehru Memorial Library, Delhi, the Sahitya Akademi, Delhi and the JNU Library, Delhi.

I am extremely grateful to my parents for their enduring support and forbearance. I remember with gratitude my late father-in-law for showing a keen sense of interest in my work.

Anupam stood by me during the entire period, taking care of all the other things, while I was busy with my work. My very special thanks to Rhea and Neerh for bearing with me and I really feel guilty for snatching some of their favourite moments, which they would have loved to share with me.
