APPENDIX B.

(1) In a number of cases it was found that the husbands lodged complaints in the recruiting districts to the Government officials that their wives had been enticed away to Assam as coolies without their knowledge.

(2) Dasi went to Azumgarh and told Jini that her husband had summoned her to go to Golundo and also paid her Rs.30/- as her way-expenses. She agreed to go. Instead of going to Golundo Dasi escorted her direct to Dhubri and then sent her to tea gardens.

(3) Two women of Bilashpur district were once met by one Jagannath an old acquaintance of these women who took them to Purulia on the pretext that his sister's marriage would be celebrated there at which their presence was required and thence brought them to Golundo by Railway with intention to send them to tea gardens.

(4) That she had been enticed by one Madan Singh arkati in Midnapur who sent her to the garden, saying that he had a house there, that she should live with him and should get great ease.

(5) Two women stated that they had been enticed away to Raniganj with the promise that they would be taken to Calcutta to bathe in the Ganges and from Raniganj they had been sent to the tea gardens.

(6) A woman complained before S.D.O. Jorhat that a man named Ramprasad had enticed her away from her house, where she had left her husband and child, promising to keep her, that he afterwards said that he would take her to Assam to see his house and at Dhubri, he deserted her.

(7) That she had been enticed away by an arkati while she was collecting fire wood in the jungle.

(8) Complaint made by two coolies named Sashi Bhushan Bhattacharjee and Sairabhi Dasi natives of Jamtara Sub-Division that they had been induced to come to Assam by misrepresentation as to the work they would have to do.

(9) That he had quarreled with his brother and mother and left his home and while he was going to see his relatives in another village an arkati met him and took him to a labour depot with assurance that he would be employed as chowkidar in Sahib's bungalow on Rs.10/- a month. He was sent to Assam ultimately as labour.