I would like to record deep sense of gratitude to a considerable number of persons and institutions who have been generous enough to help me with their valued advice, information and materials.

At the very outset, I take the opportunity to acknowledge my gratitude to Sri K.N. Barma, LL.M., Ex-Dean, Faculty of Law, Gauhati University, for whose invaluable guidance, ideas and suggestions, I have been able to complete this arduous task.

My heartful thanks are due to the Directorate of Research, Government of Arunachal Pradesh, Itanagar. I can not forget the help of Dr. D.K. Duarah, Asstt. Director of Research (Cul), who was kind enough to supply me a number of papers/documents of great importance. Similarly the Authority of Law Research Institute, Gauhati High Court, also helped me to the best possible extent. Prof. M.C. Goswami, Ex-Head of the Deptt. of Anthropology, Gauhati University, once who was also entrusted to look after the Law Research Institute of the Gauhati High Court for some time had extended some selective points in this research work and he immensely helped me in fixing the parameter of this work.

In spite of preoccupation and extreme dearth of the time Sri D. Pathak, M.A. LL.M. (London), Ex-Chief Justice of Orissa High Court and Vice-Chairman of the Central Administrative Tribunal, Gauhati Bench and Hon'ble Justice Sri J.M. Pravastava, M.A., LL.B., heard me patiently and gave solution to a number of knotty problems. Their Lordship's advice and inspiration certainly encouraged me to complete this work.

In this context, I would like to record my deep debt to Sri B.N. Goswami, former Standing Council of Arunachal Pradesh at Guwahati High Court, Senior Advocate and Sri B.D. Agarwalla, Advocate, Guwahati High Court. I am indebted to both of them, as they extended their indispensable help and expertise.

Sri J.M. Tangu, I.A.S., Secretary to the Hon'ble Chief Minister, Arunachal Pradesh, Sri K. Borang, I.A.C., Naharlagun, Sri L. Dai, Director, Directorate of Information and Public Relation, Naharlagun were kind enough to give the interviews and kindly answered my questionnaires inspite of their extreme busy schedules and pre-occupation. I am very much grateful to Sri B. Maruah, Liaison Officer, Government of Arunachal Pradesh. Sri Maruah was the keyman to arrange my visit to Arunachal Pradesh and interviews with the local dignitaries and village authorities.

Dr. N. Singh, LL.M., Head of the Department of Law, Guwahati University, encouraged me by his valuable suggestions and advices all along my travail of producing this work, for which I shall remain ever grateful to him.

This column will remain incomplete if I miss to refer to the contribution of my husband, Sri B.C. Pathak, LL.M., Advocate, Guwahati High Court and Lecturer, Government Law College, Guwahati, in every respect of this research work. My affectionate thanks giving to my young children, Lalumoni and Babumoni for their sustained accommodation to allow their mother to attempt this academic exercise. I also pay my gratitude to all, those who helped me directly or indirectly in this work.

Mamjishree Pathak
