ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

To begin with, in acknowledging in the journey of my research work, I owe immensely to some people for their guidance, inspiration and co-operation.

Through the whole period of my research work, my respected guide Prof. Girish Sharma Sir has been a constant source of inspiration. I am highly obliged to him and register my profound gratitude and respect to him at this moment.

I am grateful to the Head, Department of philosophy, Gauhati University for providing me the opportunity to undertake this inter-disciplinary study.

I offer my sincere thanks to the Principal, S.B. Deorah College, Guwahati for giving me the permission to carry on my research work.

The respected teachers of Political Science Department, Gauhati University encouraged me for the research work, particularly Prof. Monirul Hussain and Professor (Mrs.) Sandhya Goswami inspired me greatly. I owe very much to them.

I am thankful to the different libraries where from I have collected materials for my research work viz., Shanti Sadhana Ashram Library, Basistha; Hari Krishna Das Memorial Library, Panbazar; K.K. Handique Library, Gauhati University; North Bengal University Library; Library of Omeo Kumar Das Institute of Social Change and Development, Guwahati; S.B. Deorah College Library; and some other personal libraries.

I am thankful to Dr. Dhrubajit Das, Librarian of S.B. Deorah College who assisted me in collecting the materials from the library.

I offer my sincere thanks to Dr. (Mrs) Pranita Devi, Senior Lecturer, Bajali College and Ms. Seuji for encouraging me to complete the work.

It would be a mistake on my part if I donot express my gratitude to the members of my family for providing me time to complete my work. I owe very much to my husband Sri Jaladabaran Mahanta and my son Rupah. Without their help and cooperation the research work would not have been completed in time.

Last but not least, I express my thankfulness to Ms Rita Gogoi of Martinet Computer, Jalukbari, for helping me in completing the work within stipulated time.
