ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

“Twill sing to my God a new song:
O! Lord, thou art great and glorious
Wonderful in strength and invincible” (Judith, 16/13)

It is a pleasant duty and joyful privilege of the investigator to express her deep indebtedness and profound gratitude to all those who have helped her in the completion of this study. The investigator is extremely grateful to Dr. P.M. Jaleel, Professor and Director, School of Pedagogical Sciences, Mahatma Gandhi University, Kottayam whose efficient and inspiring guidance this study was conducted. His valuable suggestions, constant encouragement and kind treatment enabled the investigator to complete the study in the stipulated time.

The investigator duly acknowledges the financial help and academic assistance given by UGC under the Faculty Improvement Programme of the lVth plan period. The grateful thoughts of the investigator turn to the manager of St. Thomas Training College, Very Rev. Msgr. Philip Njaralkattu who accorded permission and support to pursue the research. The investigator expresses her immense gratitude to the faculty members, administrative staff and librarians of the School of Pedagogical Sciences who helped her in one way or another in completing the study.

The investigator is deeply indebted to Professor Kalyana Kaman, Reader Department of Statistics, University of Kerala for his valuable suggestions and help in the processing and analysis of data with computer assistance. The investigator acknowledges her indebtedness to Sr. Sylvette A.C. Retd, Professor and Head of the Department of Geography, St. Agnes College, Mangalore and other expert body from various faculties and universities who gave necessary guidance in the preparation of instructional materials and validation of tools.

In a very special way, the investigator wants to express her indebtedness to Mother Augusta CMC and members of Jaya Matha Province, her relatives and friends for their love, prayers and encouragement in conducting the present study. She expresses her gratitude to the Principal, Professor N.J. Joseph and staff of St. Thomas Training College, Palo for their academic direction, support and encouragement.

The investigator places on record the sincere thanks to the librarians of various universities and libraries who helped her in the collection of related studies. The investigator is thankful to the heads of the institutions, teaching and non-teaching staff and students of the schools who rendered their valuable support and cooperation during the data collection period.

Sr. MARY P.T.