ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I have been one of the most fortunate ones to have received plenty of love and family care besides encouragement and assistance from a large number of persons during my field investigation. I cannot possibly list all these names, but it will be ungratefulness on my part if I cannot wholeheartedly thank Professor Lilamoy Mukhopadhyay (Editor, Bankura Hitaishi) and Shri Sham Sundar Sukul (Social Welfare Officer, Government of West Bengal) and their family members in Bankura for their unforgettable help during my field investigation.

My work would have been impossible but for the hospitality, encouragement, help and guidance of innumerable teachers, local enthusiasts, villagers of all kinds, all over Bankura. To them I feel an unforgettable debt of gratitude not only for helping me in my research work, but also for the unstinting friendliness which made that research a pleasure. Of these I must single out for special gratitude a few local people who have done much to preserve and create understanding of the culture of their home area - Late Asutosh Ganguly (Kansavati Project Colony, Gorabari), Shri Bibhuti Bhusan Biswas (Jaykrishnapur), Dr. Manik Lal Singha (Vangiya Sahitya Parisad, Vishnupur), Shri Jitendra Nath Bandyopadhyay (Former District Information Officer, Bankura), Shri Nirmal Kumar Misra (Fulkushma), Professor Dilip Kumar Sen Gupta (Panchmura College), Shri Subhas Chandra Mandal (Thumkara), Shri Dukharanjan Bandyopadhyay (Bankura), Shri Sahadev Karmakar (Susunia), Shri H. S. Roy (Harmasra), Shri P. Roy (Harmasra), Shri S. Mukherjee (Harmasra), Shri Abdul Sattar (Deulbhira), Shri S. Singha Dhabaldev (Ambikanagar), Shri S. Bhattacharya (Gorabari), Shri Utpal Chakrabarti (Lecturer, Chhandar Basic Training College), Shri Tarun Singh (Jiorda), Shri Lachman Singh (Jiorda), Shri Dvija Pada Tunga (Namo Kechanda),
Shri Ajit Panda (Brahmandiha), Shri J. Nath (Retired Headmaster, Indpur High School), Shri Kiriti Bhusan Das (Govindapur), Shri Sristidhar Bandyopadhyay (Palashdanga), Shri Sakti Pada Bagdi (Palashdanga) and Manik Bauri (Palashdanga).

For constant encouragement and valuable advice I am grateful to Professor R. S. Sharma, Professor R. L. Shukla, Professor S. Sarkar, Professor P. Bhatia, Professor K. M. Shrimali, Professor H. C.
