This doctoral thesis grew out of the ungrudging assistance, co-operation and collaboration from different important personalities, institutions and organisations but whose help the painstaking hard and arduous task which I imposed on myself could not have been brought to a successful end.

At the very outset I would like to express my lifelong gratitude to Dr. M.R.Chaudhuri, M.A.,D.Litt.,Professor and Head of the Department of Geography, Burdwan University, who with his vast erudition encyclopedic knowledge and massive grasp of the subject guided me like a beacon light at every step of my long and sustained research work. His unflinching inspiration and unfalteringly sagacious advice enabled me to complete my labour of love.

I am immensely indebted to this mighty scholar who with his unrivalled mastery over statistics, and invaluable advice helped me to give a concrete and solid basis to my thesis. Boundless is my heartfelt gratitude to him.

I owe a great debt of gratitude to Mr. M.M.Jana,M.Sc. of Calcutta University for his cartographical assistance.

Dt. Ahmednagar gave me opportunities to visit their factories and acquire practical knowledge of the operations involved. My thanks are due to them for their valuable help.

Last but not the least I am highly thankful to Sri Bhabani Sankar Ghatak of the Burdwan University for carefully typing out my thesis. Sri Art Press for neat book binding and the "Industrial Situation", a Journal edited by Dr.M.R. Chaudhuri for drawing upon lavishly on valuable articles, facts and figures from which have greatly enriched my thesis.
