ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I want to avail myself of the opportunity of extending my sincere thanks and gratitude to all my friends and colleagues who have been helpful in various ways at different stages of this thesis.

My deep sense of gratitude are due to my respected supervisor Dr. P. Barua, Professor and Head of the Department of Library and Information Science, University of Burdwan for his constant inspiration and helpful suggestions from the very beginning to the final stage of work.

In pursuit of this research study I had to lean heavily on the National Library, Calcutta, Burdwan University Library and Visva-Bharati University Library as these three libraries are selected for field investigation. I would like to thank the library staffs of all the above three libraries for their spontaneous help and participation as respondents in my field survey of library communication.

I owe immense sense of gratefulness to Prof. A. Dasgupta, the then Director, National Library and Smt. K. Dasgupta, Librarian, National Library, Calcutta, Sri A.K. Mukhopadhyay, the then Librarian, Burdwan University Library and Sri A.K. Mitra, Deputy Librarian, Burdwan University Library and Sri R. Sen, Deputy Librarian, Visva-Bharati University Library for providing me all the library facilities and giving me the permission to meet each and every library professional at his/her working table/place.
I am deeply beholden to respected Dr. P.K. Chakrabarty, Reader (on lien), Dept. of Philosophy, B.U., at present Reader in Educational Psychology, Department of Education, University of Calcutta, my co-supervisor for choosing such suitable research topic. Only for his ungrudging encouragement and sympathetic guidance it is possible for me to submit this research study for the Ph.D. Degree in library and information science.

My debts are due to all the authors or learned societies those works I have consulted and cited throughout my thesis.

I am very much thankful to Dr. A.K. Sinha, Asstt. Professor, IIT, Kanpur (Appendix-II) and Mr. Judy Chan, Assistant to Mr. Peter Monge, Editor, Communication Research, University of South California (Appendix-III) for their helpful comments and suggestions against my queries.

I am also thankful to the Director, National Social Science Documentation Center, New Delhi for supplying a current bibliography on related topic of our interest.

I would like to express my deep gratitude to my mother who's blessings always inspired me to finish this heavy work. I also owe a great deal to my very understanding wife, Smt. Arati, who provided strong support in many ways while I went on this research.

Lastly, I am specially grateful to Sri Dipak Kumar Mukherjee, for typing the manuscript and Sri Somnath De, for comparing the manuscript.
