ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The author is deeply indebted and grateful to his revered teacher Prof. V. HYDER KHAN, Professor and Head of the Department of Physics, Sri Krishnadevaraya University, Anantapur for his inspiring guidance, illuminating insights and above all for his patience, versatility and constant encouragement throughout this investigation.

The author is highly grateful to Prof. T. V. RAMA KRISHNA RAO, Chairman, Board of Studies in Physics, Sri Krishna devaraya University, Anantapur for the general interest in this work.

The author expresses his sincere thanks to Prof. V. RAMA MURTHY, Prof. N. MANOHARA MURTHY and Prof. E. RAJAGOPAL who have provided the necessary facilities to complete this work.

The author is highly thankful to Dr. K. SUBBARANGAIAH, Reader in Physics and Dr. R. RAMA KRISHNA REDDY, Lecturer in Physics and other members of the Physics faculty who extended help in their individual capacity. The author is thankful to Sri S. ALLABAKASH, Foreman, Dept. of Instrumentation.

The author is thankful to Sri G. RAVINDRA NATH, Research Scholar, without whose encouragement, this work would have remained incomplete.
He is also thankful to Sri J. ANJANEYULU and Sri S. Md. BAZNI and other Co-Scholars who provided necessary help for completion of this work.

The author expresses his gratitude to the Regional Joint Director of Higher Education, Cuddapah and the Principal Sri G. RAMA MOHAN and Ex-Principal Sri R. RAMA KRISHNA REDDY Govt. Junior College (Girls), Hindupur for permitting him to carry out this work.

The author records his deepest debt of gratitude to his parents for their encouragement and blessings.

Finally, thanks are due to the authorities of Sri Krishnadevaraya University, Anantapur for providing the opportunity and facilities to carry out this work.

C. VEERABHADRAPPA