ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am greatly indebted to my esteemed research supervisor, Prof. C.R. Reddy, Department of Commerce, Sri Krishnadevaraya University, Anantapur. Despite his busy academic schedule, he has always been kind enough to spare his valuable time and thought in giving necessary guidance. He has been all through a source of stimulation and inspiration. I have freely encroached upon his precious time at every stage of this work. I cannot thank him enough for his guidance.

I am thankful to the University College and University authorities for providing all necessary facilities. I am also thankful to the Management of Loyola Degree College (YSSR), Pulivendla for the encouragement shown in completing this work.

My thanks are also due to the staff of the Agriculture Department, the Syndicate Bank, Cuddapah and the Collectorate, Cuddapah who have provided me the required data for the study.

I owe my sincere gratitude to all the respondent-farmers who extended their whole hearted cooperation in providing the necessary data but for which the present work would have been impossible.
I must mention my gratitude to my brother Sri N. Obula Reddy, Retired Engineer for his encouragement shown with affection in developing my academic career.

I am specially thankful to Dr. M.V. Seshu, Reader in Commerce, SDGS College, Hindupur, and A. Prathap Reddy, Lecturer in Economics and colleagues in the Department of Commerce, Loyola Degree College (YSSR) Pulivendla for their co-operation and help.

It is pleasure to thank my wife Smt. N. Subhadra and my children Suneetha, Swetha and Srikanth for bearing with all inconveniences silently while I was away from responsibilities.
