The topic "The Roots of the Popular Discontent in Assam under the Ahom rules", itself denotes the very meaning and the purpose of the study. The mighty Ahom dynasty collapsed as the result of the uprising of its very subjects in the form of Moamariya uprising.

The history Ahoms always impressed me a lot from my childhood. In the same time I developed a strong desire to know the conditions of the common people of Assam under the Ahoms, to know the roots of their discontentment, which gave the birth of Moamariya uprising.

The Moamariya uprising was not a simple uprising. It was the outburst of the discontentment of the people pent up for centuries. The uprising sparked off the conflagration. It was the beginning of the end of the Ahom rule. The subsequent developments, the Burmese invasions and the occupation of the state by the British were the far reaching outcomes of the Moamariya uprising.

The area of the studies of Ahom rules in Assam from the prospective of its subjects have not been much touched upon by the contemporary and the recent scholars.

This is humble and sincere attempt on my part to unveil the true picture of the existing condition of the common people under the Ahoms, the roots of discontentment and its nature, which ultimately compelled them to lead an uprising.
I have the pleasurable duty to express my heartfelt gratitude to Prof \( \text{(Dr) Bharati Barua} \) - former Head of the Department of History, Gauhati University, under whose kind supervision I have had the privileged to carry on my research work, for the encouragement and valuable suggestions given to me inspite of her multifarious works and busy time.

It must be acknowledged that the inspiring suggestions and attitude of Prof Ranju Bezbarua Sir, Department of History, Gauhati University, who gave me a very remarkable dimension of the scope and treatment of my research.

I am indebted to all the faculty members of the Department of History, Gauhati University, Directorate of the Historical and Antiquarian Studies Assam, DHAAS, Guwahati, Kamrup Anusandhan Samiti, KAS, Guwahati, North Eastern Historical Association, NEHA, Regional office of the Indian Council of Historical Research, ICHR, Guwahati K.K. Handique Library, GU, District library Guwahati, Directorate of Museum, Guwahati, Sankardeva Kalakshreta, Guwahati, National Museum New Delhi, National Archives of India, New Delhi, State Archive, Calcutta, and different libraries and publication houses, who provided me the invaluable books as reference for my research.

I take this opportunity to offer my gratitude to Prof. Sristidhar Dutta, Department of History, Arunachal University, Dr. Pratyusa Kumar Mandal, DESSH, NCERT, New Delhi, and Dr Pritish Acharyya RIE Bhubaneswar, who widened my outlook and inducted the spirit of research.
I take this opportunity to express my gratitude to my late mother Devajani Hazarika whose love and guidance in her life time still continues to inspirit me.

I am grateful indeed to Sri Golok Chandra Hazarika - my father who always stands beside me with his blessings. I am indebted to Mr. Boloram Nag and Mrs. Santi Nag for their encouragement.

I thank to my daughter Shreyashree, who is a constant source of inspiration. My thanks is also due to Pranab, Rubi, Rashmi, Dipanjali, Dipika, DibyaJyoti, Maina, Majani, Kavita, Bhaiti, Babu, Bablu,Puroshottam, Khan, Vipin, Rezwan, Hemanta, , Himangsu, Jolly, Biplab, Denish, Roman,and those who helped me in bringing out this work.

Last but not the least; I crave the indulgence to record the name of Pranita Nag Hazarika for her help and co-operation.

Six Mile
VIP Road, by lane III
Guwahati
July,2005

Dhruba Jyoti Hazarika