ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am deeply indebted to my guide-supervisor, Dr H. N. Kalita; former principal of Government Law College and at present Member Assam Public Service Commission, Guwahati; who has been a consistence source of moral support and intellectual sustenance to me throughout the period of my work. It has been a rewarding experience to work under the guidance and supervision of such a devoted personality, who inspire of his permanent physical infirmities has arisen to the occasion to hold his present post and assignment. It was only owing to his inspiration, advice and fruitful guidance that this work has been the light of this day. I owe a great deal of gratitude to him.

I am also indebted to Sri Amitava Roy, Advocate, Gauhati High Court, an affectionate senior colleague and a family friend, who has been a constant source of inspiration, professional coverage and moral support and so also to Sri Ranjan Gogoi, Advocate. My thanks are due to Sri K. K. Shahisamunder, Advocate, a sincere junior colleague for nicely looking after my Chamber and Mr Dinesh Sharma, a student of LLB (final) for getting the photostat and binding works done.

I collected bulk of informations and materials from the library of 'The Indian Society of International Law', (Bhagwan Das Road, New Delhi near Supreme Court of India). The then (1992) Registrar thereof, Sri R. Chakraborty Biswas, was so kind and liberal to allow me to use and obtain photostat copies of the relevant materials and also to provide other references. My hearty thanks to him and also I thank Sri Diwan Singh, an employee, for gracefully providing help to get photostat copies.

My sincere thanks are also due to the Librarian and the staff of "American Centre Library", (Kasturva Gandhi Marg, near Canaught Place, New Delhi); and District Library (Rabindra Bawan Wing), Guwahati, for their ungrudging help and co-operation.

My sincere thanks and gratitudes are also due to all the Doctors dealing in TTB and their staff, who extended their co-operation and unrestricted access to their institutions; especially Dr Iqbal Singh of "Iqbal Nursing Home", Ludhiana, (Punjab), for devoting maximum time of his busy schedule enabling me to record his lengthy interview verbatim from 21.30 hrs. to 23.30 hrs on 14.4.1993 and Dr M. L. Swarankar of "Jaipur Fertility & Medical Research Centre" (Jaipur, Rajasthan) for useful materials and discussion; Dr Promod Sharma of "Marwari Maternity Hospital" (Athgaon, Guwahati) and Dr M. L. Goenka of "Institution of Human Reproduction Consultant", Ambari Fatasil, Guwahati for valuable help and materials; Doctor (Smti) Manjit Kochar of "Gangaram Hospital" (Rajendra Road, New Delhi) for informations over telephone, Dr Sudarshan Ghosh Dustidar, of IVF clinic, New Garia Haat, Calcutta, for discussion and informations, Dr Indira Hinduja of "Jaslok Hospital", Bombay and Dr Mehroo D. Hansotia of "Wadia Hospital" Bombay for responding to Questionnaire sent to them by post and giving valuable suggestions.
My special thanks and gratitudes are due to Mr Ian Hague of British High Commission, New Delhi for responding to my letter and exceptionally providing me free of cost a copy of "Warnock report" on Her Magesty's Service which is Primary Source of information in the field of this study.

My sincere thanks and gratitude are due to Sri D. Biswas, Judicial Registrar, Gauhati High Court for providing a certificate enabling me to approach the Judicial Officers and Judges of different courts for obtaining data through Questionnaire meant for Legal Professionals, both at the Bar and the Bench. My hearty thanks are also due to Dr (Ms) J. Barooah, Director, Law Research Institute, Eastern Region, Gauhati High Court, Guwahati for valuable help and guidance.

I also feel deeply indebted to Mr. P. Kalita, Retired Judge, Special Court Assam and the then Director of North Eastern Judicial Officers' Training Institute (NEJOTI), Ulubari, Guwahati - 7 for constantly encouraging me for this study and providing me an opportunity to participate in a debate relating to the legal problems of TTB held on 29.9.96 at NEJOTI, in which ten Judges of various District Courts including Family Court, MACT and Designated Court, participated I owe my deep gratitude to him and other participants of the debate who actively discussed the matter and extended moral support to me for completing this study successfully.

My thanks are due to Dr Satyakam Phukan, who has taken lot of pains to collect and provide informations to me through National Information Centre and inspired to obtain 'Warnock Report' from the British High Commission, New Delhi, which I could obtain as stated herein above.

My sincere thanks and gratitude are also due to all members of legal profession both at the Bar and the Bench, who extended their valuable help and gave suggestions by responding to the Questionnaire devoting their precious time. I also owe my thanks to the authorities of Gauhati University for allowing me to do this research.

I also thank Sri Gauri Kanta Bora, who has taken much strain to turn the first draft in typescript into its present form by using the latest technology of computer system.

Lastly my obligations are also due to my wife, daughters, relatives, friends and colleagues, who stood by me as a source of inspiration and for all their help and co-operation.

Guwahati - 781 001

Date : 31st March, 1997

(Gobind Lal)