ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I express my sincere gratitude to my supervisor and guide Prof. C. Srikantappa, Department of studies in Earth Science, University of Mysore, Manasagangotri, Mysore. I am grateful for his enriched suggestions, inspiring and immensely valuable guidance and unsurpassed knowledge, without which this thesis would not have been possible. I acknowledge my sincere gratefulness to Prof. S. Govindaiah who inspired me to pursue Ph.D programme. It was pleasure working with them and I would also like to thank them for all the valuable discussions and their expertise imparted in the preparation of the thesis. My sincere thanks are also due to Prof. B. Basavalingu, Chairperson, Prof. C. Byrappa, Ex Chairperson, and all the faculty members of department of studies in Earth Science. University of Mysore for giving me an opportunity and providing all the research facilities in the department.

I am deeply indebted to Shri P. S. Parihar, Director, Atomic Minerals Directorate (AMD), Hyderabad, Shri. K. Umamaheswar, Additional Director, AMD, Hyderabad and Dr. Anjan Chaki and P. B. Maithani former Directors, AMD for giving me the permission and encouragement to pursue Ph.D programme.

Shri S. Zakaulla, Scientific Officer-H, Incharge Southern Cuddapah Basin Investigations, Southern Region, AMD, Bangalore, a friend who inspired and persuaded me to take up Ph.D programme with U-mineralisation in Vempalle Formation of Cuddapah Basin. I acknowledge his affection, encouragement and unending support which sustained my confidence in completion of the work.
I appreciate and acknowledge my colleagues Dr. U. K. Pandey from Geochronology Lab, AMD, Hyderabad and Ms. Sangeeta Bhagat from Petrology Lab, AMD, Bangalore for help in interpretation of geochronological data and thin section studies respectively. I also sincerely thank all my colleagues of Geology, Chemistry, Physics and Petrology laboratory, AMD, Bangalore for different studies of geological samples and their contribution directly or indirectly in preparation of this thesis.

Last, but by no means least, I express thanks to my wife Ms. Manju Rai and my sons Tarun Rai and Tushar Rai for their unequivocal support throughout, great patience at all times and encouragement in making this dream a reality.
