CONTENTS

FOREWORD

PART I - INTRODUCTION

CHAPTER I
The Subject Matter and the Sources.
1. The Subject and its importance. 2. Scope of the Subject - (a) The Medieval period, (b) The Assamese Society. 3. Sources - (a) Historical Literature, (b) Biographical Literature.

CHAPTER II
Preliminary Discussions.
1. Geographical Aspect - (a) Physical Features, (b) Climate, (c) Climate and Health, (d) Natural Calamities. 2. The People - (a) Austro-Asiatics, (b) Tibeto-Burmans, (c) Thai-Chinese, (d) The Alpines, (e) The Aryans, (f) The Mohammedans. 3. A Brief Account of the Early period. 4. Origin of the name 'Assam'.

CHAPTER III
Political Background.
1. Introduction. 2. The Western Area - (a) The Kingdom of Kamata, (b) The Rule of the Bhuyans, (c) The Koch Kingdom. 3. The Eastern portion - (a) The Barahis and the Morans, (b) The Kalita Kingdom, (c) The Chutia Kingdom, (d) The Kacharis, (e) The Ahoms.

CHAPTER IV
The Social and Cultural Synthesis.

PART II - SOCIAL ASPECTS

CHAPTER I
Racial Admixture and Hinduisation.
1. Introduction. 2. Admixture by Degradation and Elevation. 3. Admixture by Fusion of blood. 4. Admixture by Conversion - the working agents - (a) The Brahmana priests, (b) The Royal Patrons, (c) The Vaisnavite Movement.

CHAPTER II
Social Divisions.
CHAPTER III  Social Units and Administrative Divisions.

CHAPTER IV  Daily life of the Assamese People.

CHAPTER V  The Religious Institutions.
1. The Temples. 2. The Namghars. 3. The Satras.

CHAPTER VI  The Tax System.

CHAPTER VII  Social Justice.

CHAPTER VIII  Laws of Inheritance.

CHAPTER IX  Dress and Ornaments.

CHAPTER X  Food and Drink.

CHAPTER XI  Marriage Institutions and the Position of Women.
1. Forms of Marriage. 2. Position of Women.

CHAPTER XII  The Impact of Ahom Administration and Vaisnava Movement on Assamese Character and Society ... ...

CHAPTER XIII  Social Habits and Manners and Customs.

PART III — ECONOMIC ASPECTS

CHAPTER I  Agriculture.
1. Introduction. 2. Irrigation. 3. Division and of Land and Land Settlements. 4. Cultivation of Paddy and other Crops.
CHAPTER II Crafts and Industries.

CHAPTER III Commercial Enterprise.

PART IV - CULTURAL ASPECTS

CHAPTER I Language and Literature.

1. Language - (a) Assamese Script, (b) Assamese Language: Its Origin and Development. 2. Literature - (a) Preliminary Discussion, (b) Patrons and Centres of Literary Activities.

CHAPTER II Education.

CHAPTER III Amusements and Festivals.

1. Amusements - (a) Preliminary Discussion, (b) Description of some Games and Sports, (c) Other Amusements. 2. Festivals.
BIBLIOGRAPHY

---

--- ILLUSTRATIONS ---

1. Ground plan of a Typical Assamese Homestead. ... P - 189.
2. Ground plan of a Typical Satra of Assam. ... P - 209.
3. Dresses. ... P - 225.
4. Ornaments. ... P - 238.
5. Khopas (coiffure) and Combs. ... P - 242.
6. Wooden Works. ... P - 548.
7. Bamboo and Cane Works. ... P - 549.
8. Bell-metal and Brass Works. ... P - 566.
9. Musical Instruments. ... P - 454.

(The ideas of some of the sketches are taken from 'Asamar Loka Sanskriti' by Dr. B.K. Barua.)

************