Acknowledgement:

I would like to express my profound gratitude first to my guide Dr. Devadas Bhorali, Prof. (Retd) of Department of Commerce, Gauhati University, but for whose help, encouragement and guidance this thesis would not have been possible.

I owe a particular debt of gratitude to my friend Dr. Hem Chandra Gautam, Prof., Department of Commerce, Gauhati University who pressed me to undertake this research work and inspired me all the time to complete the study.

I received special encouragement from my teachers Dr. P.K. Bhattacharjee, Principal Icon College of Commerce and late Dr. K.K. Kalita, retired Head of the Department of the Commerce, Gauhati Commerce College for conducting my research work.

I offer my thanks to my respected teachers Dr. S. Sikidar, Dr. N.C. Das and all other honourable faculty members of Commerce Department of Gauhati University for their co-operation and valuable suggestions.

I am no less indebted to some of my dear and respected colleagues in Gauhati Commerce College who include K.K. Nath, Dr. S.S. Sarkar, M.C. Kalwar, B. Bhattacharjee, Dr. G.G. Banik, Dr. P. Bhattacharyya, Dr. A.B. Deka, B.B. Dam, A. Talukdar, A. Kalita and our librarian Sri Utpal Sarma.

My special thanks go to Dr. R.D. Pator of Assamese Department of Gauhati Commerce College who is a source of inspiration to me over the last few years for research and other academic works.

I am grateful to all the staff of National Library, Kolkata, Omeo Kumar Das Institute of Social Change and Development, Guwahati, Dr. K.K. Handique Library, Gauhati University, L.N. Bazbaruah Library, Dibrugarh University and Dr. B.K. Baruah Library of Gauhati Commerce College for extending help and co-operation enabling me to go through a number of important reference books, journals and thesises.
I am grateful to all authors and writers from whose writings I derived necessary information and impetus for this research.

I must not forget the help extended to me by the Statistical Branch of Gauhati University, Examination and Registration Branch of Assam Higher Secondary Education Council, Sri P.Kakati of Director of Higher Education, Assam, Dr.
Bijoy Ch. Sarma of J.B. College, Dr. K.M. Bhagabati of DHSK Commerce
College, Homeswar Kalita of Gargaon College, Ajit Kr. Sarma of Damdama College, Dr. Umacharan Sarma of Handique Girls' College, my nephew Dr.
Bhushan Ch. Pathak of Cotton College, Dr. Apurba Kr. Das, General Secy, ACTA, Dilip Sarma (Moni) and my brother-in law Sri Kalyan Talukdar.

I will remain greatly indebted to all the principals of Sample Colleges who supplied me with the necessary data of their respective colleges. My special thanks go to Dr. Ghanashyam Nath, Principal, Gauhati Commerce College who happened to be my Class-mate and intimate friend. The students who responded to my questionnaire survey also equally deserve my thanks and good wishes for their bright future. I would also like to pay homage to the departed soul of Upama Deka who always encouraged me like my mother to complete the research work.

My friend Sri Protul Rajkumar and my brother “Dhan” of Minion Offset Press deserve special thanks for taking trouble to bring out the thesis within a very short period of time.

Last but not the least, I must not forget the sustained encouragement and help
I have received from my wife “Bobby” and two Sons “Miki and Biki” to complete this thesis.

In conclusion, I do admit all my weaknesses in the art of writing and wish to be excused for any lapses.

Dated 16th March, 2006

(Rati Kanta Pathak)