ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This piece of research work was encouraged and given right and helpful direction by the supervision and guidance of Dr. C. L. Boissya, M.Sc. Ph.D. (Lond.) F.N.A.Sc. F.L.S. (Lond.) Professor in Botany, Gauhati University.

At the very outset I owe the greatest debt of gratitude to him without whose constructive criticism, creative suggestion and affectionate guidance, this work would not have been completed.

I am grateful to Sri D. R. Basumatary, Principal of Kokrajhar College, Kokrajhar for his kind permission and help during the course of this study. I also extend my hearty thanks to Dr. K. N. Bhagavati, District Agriculture Officer, Kokrajhar, Mr. M. R. Lahary, Principal, Govt. College of Teacher's Education, Kokrajhar, Sri M. M. Brahma, Linguist, Sociologist and Ex. Member of the A.P.S.C., Assam, Mr. Jogendra Nath Basumatary, President, Bodo Sahitya Sabha, Assam, for their necessary help particularly during the ethnobotanical studies.

I am also very much indebted and grateful to the Bodo people of Kokrajhar for their kind and friendly gesture and kind help they extended to me during my field studies.
I also express my greatfulness to the authorities and the staff members of Kanjilal Herbarium Eastern Circle, B.S.I., Shillong, Central National Herbarium, Sibpur, Calcutta, District Museum, Kokrajhar, Assam, for the kind help and facilities extended to me.

My hearty thanks are also due to my students Miss Prativa Narzary and Amar Brahma who helped me in survey, field collections and preparation of herbarium. Thanks are also due to Sri Namal Das, Laboratory Assistant, Deptt. of Botany, Kokrajhar College, Kokrajhar for his help in poisoning and mounting of specimens for herbarium. Further I extend thanks to Mrs. S. Boissya, M.Sc. M.Phil, Lecturer in Anthropology, North Gauhati College for her help and encouragement and my friends and well wishers for their constant encouragement.

I am also greatful to my father Sri R. S. Brahma who helped me a lot in collecting specimen and getting the local names, Bodo names and the various uses of the plants. Lastly, I extend my thanks to my wife late Latika Brahma for her whole hearted encouragement and inspiration throughout the research work inspite of her prolong dying illness.

Birendra Kumar Brahma.
( Birendra Kumar Brahma )