I have the pleasure in forwarding the thesis entitled : "Allelopathic effects of some weeds on the germination of seeds and seedling vigour of certain Kharif crops" submitted by Ms Anjana Pathak to Gauhati University for the award of the PhD degree. The thesis embodies the results of her original research works which she performed under my guidance and supervision putting in her best efforts. The thesis presented is worthy of consideration for the award of the PhD degree.

Ms Pathak has fulfilled all the requirements under the regulations of the PhD degree. She has duly acknowledged the helps received by her.
