ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Doing research is not an easy task. It is more so for the one, who is not a regular student, neither a teacher nor a lecturer. Working as a postal assistant in the Postal Department, I have not found enough time to dedicate to my research project. There is a cliché that says: “If there is a will, there is a way.” Hence, I worked hard with a positive mind-set. Thus, the present dissertation entitled, “A Study of the Themes and Techniques in the Poems of Brajendra Kumar Brahma, Surath Narzary and Bishnujyoti Kachary” is the result of my hard work. But, I should admit the cent percent commitment and effort of my guide Dr. P. K. Patra sir, without him my dream would not have come true. Hence, my gratitude goes to him. Similarly, madam, Dr. Tanushree Nayak, beloved wife of Dr. Patra sir, took pain of correction by going through the dissertation thoroughly. So, my gratitude also goes to her. I would like to thank Sri Brajendra Kumar Brahma, the present president of Bodo Sahitya Sabha, Sri Surath Narzary, ex-principal of Kokrajhar Govt. College, who are also the poets of my project, for their immediate reply to my questionnaires, which have served my greater purpose in time. I am grateful to Sri Prafulla Kr. Hazoary, Dr. Subungcha Mwchahary,
Madhumahan Lahary and Romesh Ramchiary for their suggestion and help in different ways. My gratitude also goes to Dr. Dilip Bora and Dr. Umesh Deka, head of the MIL Department, Gauhati University, for their good suggestion at the time of my seminar for the final registration.

I cannot complete my acknowledgement without expressing my high sense of gratitude to my family members who supported me during my research work. Foremost in the list is my beloved wife, Padmabati Basumatary who was always taking care of my health and for sometime, she kept herself awake till midnight while doing the complete work. She is always my inspiration, otherwise, I could not finish my project. My son, Nisthar Basumatary and daughter, Nihir Basumatary had to face a lot of problems with their school lessons, as I couldn’t pay proper attention to them. Hence, my love and gratitude go to them for their adjustment. Finally, I would like to thank God for His inspiration and generating will power in me. Otherwise, this uphill task would’ve been a dream only.

(Sunil Kumar Basumatary)
