It gives me great pleasure to forward the thesis of Mr. Faiznul Haq, who carried on his research under my supervision on - "Jalaluddin Suyuti. His Life and Works". Mr. Haq has made a critical and thorough study of Suyuti, a versatile genius and author of repute. Although Suyuti is one of the most prominent figures in the annals of the literary history of the Arabs and the candidate has dealt it carefully and impartially narrating all the aspects of his literary life. As far as the analysis of Suyuti's verses is concerned, Mr. Haq has tried his level best to cover up all the important works of the great author, and indeed, inspite of all his limitations and hurdles which he faced in collecting the materials from original and authentic sources has dealt them at length.

Therefore I would like to say that this is a sound result of his sincere and untiring efforts that he completed his thesis to the learned examiners and benevolent readers.

I am forwarding his thesis according to the rules and regulations laid down by the University of Gauhati.

With a ten of best wishes.
