ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Words are inadequate to express my deep sense of gratitude to some of my friends, relatives, officials, well wishers and informants who have helped me in the course of my study.

I thankfully acknowledge the constant support and guidance received from Dr. Prabin Chandra Das, Retired Secretary, University Classes, Gauhati University, as my guide. During the entire period of my research work his valuable suggestions, comments and pain-taking supervision has been helpful in completing my thesis. I convey deep gratitude and sincere thanks to him for all the support, without which this piece of work would not have been completed in time.

I also acknowledge the help and valuable suggestions on the methodological aspects of study extended by Dr. Kishore Kumar Bhattacharjee, Head of the Department of Folklore Research, Gauhati University.

I express my deep sense of gratitude to Mr. U. M. Phukan, Principal i/c, Jagiroad College and my colleagues Mr. P. C. Gogoi, Mrs. M. Goswami, Mrs. S. Das, Mr. T. Bordoloi with whom I had extensive discussions on various problems of plains tribes particularly in the field of education.

I am thankful to the librarians of K. K. Handique Library, Gauhati University, Jagiroad College Library, Tribal Research Institute Library, Morigaon District Library who have been kind enough to allow me to review the literature adequately on various aspects of the tribal development.

I will be failing in my duty if I do not mention here the full co-operation of my life partner Mrs. Ranju Gogoi Chutia, Associate professor, Deptt, of Economics, Jagiroad College who has been very amicable and co-operative with me in managing the domestic affairs for so many times of my absence at home. My children Suman and Emon also deserve a word of appreciation for giving me tension free atmosphere to conduct the research work.

Finally, I must also thanks to Mr. Hemanta Deka for helping me in printing and formatting the work.
