BIBLIOGRAPHY

Journal Articles:

Cameron, Lynne. “Challenges for ELT from the expansion in teaching Children,” ELT Journal, 57(2), April, 2003: 105-112.

THESES / DISSERTATIONS / RESEARCH PAPERS ETC.

Theses:

Koul, B.N. A critical study of the fundamental curricular issues relevant to the teaching of English in India leading to an alternative integrated ELT curriculum, Ph.D. thesis (ELT), CIEFL, Hyderabad, 1981.

Dissertations:

Rajagopalan, S. A study of the relationship of certain environmental factors to teaching success in English achieved at the school stage. A project (report) financed by the UGC, New Delhi, CIEFL, Hyderabad.

Research Papers:

Cameron, Lynne. ‘Challenges for ELT from the expansion in teaching children.’ (Research) paper published in ELT Journal. 57(2), April 2003.

Ramanathan, Vai. ‘What does literate in English mean?: divergent literacy practices for vernacular vs. English medium students in India.’ (Research) paper published in the Canadian Modern Language Review, 59(1), September, 2002.

REPORTS/ SURVEYS ETC.:

Reports:

Surveys:

Fourth All India Educational Survey, New Delhi: NCERT, 1982.

