ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

It is fortune and pleasure to express my first and foremost thanks and deep sense of gratitude to my beloved teacher and Research Supervisor

Prof. K. Dasaratha Ramaiah, Chairman, Board of Studies, Department of Economics & Applied Economics, S.K.University, Anantapur, who is my mentor and motivator who bestowed keen interest in guiding and advising me althrough the period of my study.

My Sincere thanks to Prof. P.Ramappa, Head of the Department of Economics & Applied Economics, and other faculty members in the department for their cooperation during my research work.

I am very much grateful to the authorities of Sri Krishnadevaraya University, Anantapur and the University library authorities for providing me the facilities to complete my Ph.D. programme.

The study would not have been successfully completed without the assistance of the officials of DWAMA office, Kurnool, M.D.Os and A.P.Os of Alur, Peapally, and Mahanandi Mandals and Field Assistants of the selected Gram Panchayats and respondent Job seekers who patiently answered all my queries during my field survey. I am indebted to all of them.

I would be failing in my duty if I do not adequately acknowledge my grateful thanks to my beloved Elder Brother G. Mallikarjuna and Elder Sister in law G. Lakshmi Devi for their blessings and encouragement in successful completion of this study.

My Sincere thanks to Brother N. Anand Raju and his wife K. Aruna (M.Kottala) for their encouragement and moral support during the course of my research work.

My special thanks to my friends, M.Balafi Naik, Research Scholar in Economics, M.P.Philip, N.Raju, and Y.Ramanjaneyulu for their cooperation during the collection of data. I would like to express thanks to my colleague scholars and other friends who were good enough to help me at all times for the completion of this dissertation.

My special thanks to Prof. P.Md. Akhtar, Dept. of Statistics, S.K.University, and D.Srivinivasulu, Post Doctoral Fellow in Economics for their help in the tabulation and compelling the data.

Not to fulfill a cold formality mechanically, but to faster a meaningful gesture whole-heartedly, I would like to acknowledge my sense of gratitude to all those who helped me directly or indirectly in the completion and execution of the present dissertation. Finally, I express my thanks to P. Lokanna, S.Md. Nasir for their help in computing the thesis. Any Omission in this brief acknowledgement does not imply ingratitude.
