Acknowledgements

I am grateful to Prof. Ch. Umamohan, my research guide, Sri Krishna devaraya University, Anantapur, for his valuable guidance and comments that are greatly contributed to the success of this study. His unique approach in giving me freedom with responsibility aimed at building creativity and self-confidence and his unreserved willingness to offer the necessary support greatly helped me to improve the study. Although he has lots of responsibilities which always keep him busy, he took much pain in reading the draft version and provided constructive comments to give the thesis its final shape. His rich experience empowered me personally. Fellowship with his family also deserves much appreciation.

I am greatly indebted to Dr. Vijaya Krishna Naidu, Head, Dept of sociology, S.K.University, Anantapur, for his valuable guidance, comment and suggestions which helped me a lot in designing the study.

My special thanks to Dr. G.venkata Ramana, Chairman, Board of Studies, Dept of Sociology, S.K. University, Anantapur for his encouragement and support during the study.

I also thank and acknowledge the support provided by Dr. Amaranth R. Das, Professor, Department of Sociology, S.K. University, Anantapur. He spared his precious time in sharing his knowledge, and supported me in participating seminars.

Other teaching fraternity in Dept. of sociology, Prof. B.S. Chand Basha and Sri Chaganti Ramireddy, have also encouraged me in the study.

I am also thankful to Dr. P.Bobby Vardhan, Head of the Department of Journalism and Mass Communication, Andhra University, Vishakhapatnam for his whole hearted encouragement.

My thanks to Dr.S. Ramamurthy, Health Communication Expert, Institute of Health and Family Welfare, Hyderabad for sharing his views on Health Research.

My Professional experience has inspired me in pursuing the study. I am indebted to Eenadu Organization, Sri Ramoji Rao, Chairman, and Sri Kiran, Managing Director of Ramoji Group, Hyderabad.

My thanks to Sri D.N.Prasad, Chief, News Coordination for giving me the opportunity to work in various positions of the Organization.
My heart felt appreciation to Sri M.Nageswara Rao, Principal, Eenadu Journalism School for his encouragement and giving me opportunity in participating in selection, training and group discussions of newly selected journalists.

My deepest sense of gratitude is due to staff and colleagues of Ramoji Knowledge Centre, for providing the necessary data for the study. I am equally thankful to the administration for their help in providing the important reference books needed for my research.

I would like to extend my thanks to the Journalists, both Desk and field of various news papers in Andhra Pradesh, for spending their precious time in providing genuine responses.

I thank all those friends, who directly and indirectly contributed to the success of the study, especially to Sri G.Gopal, B.S.Ramakrishna, K. Ravi Kiron and Boppana Prasad.

I would not have completed my study, but for the constant encouragement, spirited moral support of my beloved wife, Pallavi for unreservedly encouraging me to pursue this study and bearing family responsibilities. She showed greater courage and determination to manage family affairs and helped me to concentrate on my study. Moreover, she assisted me in checking the quantitative results of the study.

My appreciation is also extended to my son, Sricharan, for his cooperation and encouragement in my study. His technical assistance has greatly helped me in updating the data. He showed much interest and supported me in my study.

Very special thanks to Sri S.Md. Nasir, for his support in proof reading and bringing the report in an attractive manner.
