LIST OF BOOKS

CONSULTED

Works by Matthew Arnold
(a) Verse:

Allott, Kenneth (ed.)

The book has a chronological table of Arnold's life and chief publications, and the 1853 Preface.

Bryson, John (ed.)

The book has a valuable Introduction and a chronological table of Arnold's life and writings and also notes on the poems. Poems, pp.31-221.

Tinker, C.B. and Lowry, H.F. (ed.)

A valuable book with all the poems of Arnold classified and arranged in chronological order. It contains Merope, Empedocles on Etna, ten cancelled poems, the 1853 Preface and 1854 Advertisement, and the poet's own explanatory notes.

Watt, F.J. (ed.)

The book has a good Introduction about Arnold's life, ideas and beliefs and the writings, and also the 1853 Preface.

(b) Letters:

Bryson, John (ed.)

Matthew Arnold letters, pp.731-778

The book has a valuable Introduction.

(c) Prose-writings

Bryson, John (ed.)  :  Matthew Arnold Prose, pp. 285-730

The book has a valuable Introduction.

Superbly annotated and indexed, the volumes contain Arnold's prose in chronological order.

The book has a good Introduction.