ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This work would have never seen its present form without the invaluable help of Prof. (Dr.) Jyotsna Kumar Mandal, Professor, Department of Computer Science and Engineering, Kalyani University and Prof. (Dr.) Satadal Mal, Professor and Head, Department of Electrical Engineering, Kalyani Government Engineering College. No formal thanks can match the meticulous training, conscientious supervision and intellectual guidance and advice I received from them. I am also grateful to respected Dr. Bolen Basu, Opsis System, Kolkata, for giving me huge mental support and encouragement. It is only with their blessings that I have been able to carry the project through.

I am deeply indebted to Sri Ranjan Das, Opsis System, Kolkata, for responding positively and untiringly to whatever help I sought from him in connection with this work. I express my sincere gratitude to all faculty and staff members of the Department of Computer Science and Engineering, University of Kalyani, who helped me time to time in many ways during the period of my research.

I never forget the valuable help of Sri Goutam Chatterjee, Sri Atanu Moitra, Sri Puspendu Sarkar and Smt. Arpita Nath who helped me at the beginning of my research. I am very much thankful to each of them.

I am thankful to all the Head, faculty members, research scholars and staff members of the Department of Computer Science and Engineering and Department of Computer Application of Kalyani Government Engineering College for their necessary support and encouragement during the period of my research. I also thankful to the Principal, Head and all the faculty members of the Department of Information technology and Computer Science and Engineering of Jalpaiguri Government Engineering College for their necessary support.

Obviously, I could not have completed this dissertation without bless and love of my parents Late Prabir Halder and Mrs. Shibani Halder and my elder brother Mr. Palash Halder. I thank them for their love, their support and encouragement.
