ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This Thesis is an outcome of the work done at the Ancient History and Archaeology Department, University of Mysore under the able supervision and guidance of Dr. G. Kariyappa. I would like too many thank to Dr.G. Kariyappa for supporting, Helping and constant encouragement in completing this work during these past five years, in Department of Studies in the Ancient History and Archaeology, University of Mysore. In this regard I am grateful to Dr.M.P. Mahadevaiah, Professor and Chairman in Ancient History and Archaeology Department of Mysore University, for his valued advice and observations. I am sincerely thankful to Dr. N.S. Rangaraju, the Ex-Chairman for giving valuable suggestions and academic inspiration in early days. Many thanks also to Dr. K.Prabhu, who convinced me during our many discussions in Mysor University.

I would also like to extend huge, warm thanks to Mrs. T.V. Usha, the Department staff, for her great help and valuable assistance. I am thankful to the office staff to supporting me during these years. I would also like to thank to the administrative staff of the University of Mysore.

I am deeply indebted to Mr. Sri. T.M.Keshava, Deputy Superintending Archaeologist, to given me permission for photography in Daria Daulat Bagh. Beside this, I have to thanking to K.Chandrakanth Sr. Conservation Assistant, NBD Kempegowda, conservation assistant, ASI, to help me for taking photo and advising about books and palace of Tipu Sultan.

I would like to thank some people who helped me to providing my research: Dr. Suryanath Kamath (Socio-Political Institutions, Chief Editor QIMS), Professor Sheik Ali distinguished historian.
I would express my deep sense of gratitude to the Dr. Veena Shakar, who unfortunately is not between us now, for her book “Historical Painting of Srirangapatana” and her valuable advice and suggestions in my work.

Thanks also to staff of Mysore University Library, Karnataka Chitrakala Parishath College of Fine Arts Library, and Dr. R.H.Kulkarni Ex chairman of Chitrakala Parishath College of Fine Arts, who permitted me to use the books of college, Archaeological Survey of India Library and Mr.Saifulla staff in Archaeological Survey of India Library. National Library and Archive of IR of Iran. Iranian Academy of the Arts Library. Managers and staff of Daria Daulat Bagh Museum, Chehel Sotun Palace Museum provided me some valuable information on this topic during my visit both Museums.

I would express my deep sense of gratitude to the affection and support shown to me by my Best teacher and friend Mrs. Nena Malik, who taught me a lot of things and I spent the best time In India with her.

This thesis results from five years of life, study, and research, and from the efforts of numerous people who have generously agreed to get involved into my own adventure shared between Iran and India.

I would like to appreciate all the researchers whose works I have used, initially in understand-in my field of research and later for updates. However beside this, I am thanking all the other people who are not mentioned here but has helped in making a very special place over all these years.

I would never have been able to finish my dissertation without the helping from my family and my friends. They were always supporting me and encouraging me with their best wishes. I would also like to thank my mother, my brother, my son and my daughter, who firmly stood by me during my absence and provided me much needed moral and emotional support at the time of completing this thesis. Finally, I would like to thank my husband who always cheering me up and stood by me through the good times and bad. Finally I would like to thank all my best friends, who helped me during these times and supported me to finish my study.

FATEMEH TAGHAVI