2. Diary

The diary of Emmanuel Nidhiry provides very good insights into the ecclesiastical history of the Malabar Church. While fighting against schism inside the church, he had the vision of Christian unity. His fight for indigenous bishops was unique in the history of the Malabar Church. His diary throws light on the personal life and achievement of Nidhiry. It was written in Malayalam. A careful reader will easily feel that the events are described in the chronological way. The whole diary is simple in style, straightforward and attractive. It is an important historical document to trace in the history of the Malabar Church in the 19th century. The diary of Archbishop Mar Ivanios are very important sources to trace the history of the Reunion Movement of the 19th and 20th centuries.
