ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I express my deepest gratitude and regards to my supervisors Prof. Sobhan Kumar Mukherjee, Dept. of Botany, University of Kalyani, Nadia, West Bengal and Dr. H. S. Debnath, Joint Director and Head of the Office, Acharya Jagadish Chandra Bose Indian Botanic Garden, Botanical Survey of India for their guidance, directions, encouragements and invaluable suggestions given throughout this study. It is my duty to remain indebted to them for their guidance, advice and constant support during the entire study period.

I am highly grateful to the past and present Directors of Botanical Survey of India, for the facilities provided throughout the period. I am grateful to the Library Staffs of Central National Herbarium and Industrial Section, Indian Museum for their support in providing literatures aptly.

I am also thankful to the Director (Sundarban Biosphere Reserve), Chief Conservator of Forests, Divisional Forest Officer (South 24-Parganas), Field Director (Sundarban Tiger Reserve), Range officers, forest guards and other staff of State Forest departments of West Bengal for providing permission and help during my field tours. I am also thankful to the boat men of vessels who helped me a lot to reach my exact study points without any hazards.

I am grateful to the Head, Department of Botany, University of Kalyani, for providing facilities of research works in this department. Acknowledgement is also due to Prof. G.G. Maiti, Department of Botany, University of Kalyani for his valuable suggestions and support. I also acknowledge the nice cooperation I received from my friend and associated research scholars of Taxonomy and Bio-systematic Laboratory, Department of Botany, University of Kalyani.

I am indebted to my parents Shri Durga Pada Brahma and Smt. Krishna Brahma, my brother Uttam Brahma whose encouragement, blessings and support have made my work possible.

I also express my deep sense of appreciation to the Headmistress, Assistant Teachers and staffs of Bill Joypur High School for their cooperation and blessings during this period.

In conclusion I wish briefly but cordially to express my thanks to all those who have kindly assisted me during the preparation of this work. I desire to thank all my friends and well-wishers for his willing and valuable help on many occasions.

Lastly, I thank the Almighty for all his deeds which is making me to understand the meaning of my life.

(GOUTAM BRAHMA)

Date:

Place: